

Five Month Sabbatical Replacement Contract Position in Sociology

Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, has a population of more than 1,300 students and emphasizes innovative approaches to teaching and learning, research and engagement. Experiential learning, impactful research, and strong community relationships are the hallmarks of Grenfell Campus' profile.

The Social Cultural Studies Programme, of the School of Arts and Social Science, invites applications for a five-month sabbatical replacements contract position in Sociology. The S/CS program is an interdisciplinary Bachelor of Arts degree linking anthropology, folklore and sociology. Applicants with a PhD and evidence of effective teaching and research experience will be given priority, but candidates with a PhD near completion will be considered. The position will begin August 1, 2023.

The successful candidate must be prepared to teach three courses in Sociology, two of which must be SOCI1000 (Introduction of Sociology) and SOCI3150 (Classical Social Theory). The other course will be chosen by the successful candidate in consultation with S/CS.

Applications will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. on April 25, 2022. A letter of application along with a curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness and a sample course outline) and the names and contact information for three references should be sent in electronic form to: Dr. Ken Jacobsen, Dean, School of Arts and Social Science, Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Corner Brook, NL A2H 6P9. Telephone: (709) 637-6202; email: sassdean@grenfell.mun.ca.

All appointments are subject to budgetary approval. Salary will reflect qualifications and experience in accordance with the Collective Agreement governing faculty at Memorial University of Newfoundland.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is strongly committed to employment equity and especially welcomes applications from all qualified candidates, including women, members of visible minorities, Indigenous persons, members of sexual minorities and persons with disabilities.
