

Tom Daniels Application Assistance Prize
Grenfell Campus

Application Form

Eligibility: Open to all fourth-year Psychology majors at Grenfell Campus.

Purpose: To offset the costs of applying to professional programs and graduate schools

Criteria: The bursary will be awarded based on academic performance in Psychology courses (minimum of 75% average in all psychology courses) and the strength of the rationale and plan regarding programs to which you are applying.

Deadline for applications: September 30

Please submit typed applications to the Chair of the Psychology Program, to be reviewed by all members of the program.

Please include the following information in your application:

- A detailed description of the programs to which you are applying, rationale for choosing these programs, and the costs associated with each application.