

Societal Crime Survey

Please complete the below rankings to assist with an upcoming learning activity on Day 2 of the workshop. Your participation is voluntary and anonymous. There is no need to submit your responses, but you may wish to keep a copy for your own reference.

Below are 13 statements that represent violations of societal norms. Please rank order them from most offensive (#1) to the least offensive (#13). Place a '1' by the behaviour that you believe to be the most offensive; a '2' by the behaviour that you believe to be the second most offensive... ending with a '13' by the behaviour that you think is the least offensive.

- _____ Failing to help a friend in need
- _____ Calling someone offensive names
- _____ Physically hurting another person while defending your property
- _____ Telling lies to your friends
- _____ Sexually cheating on a partner
- _____ Having sex with a person – not your partner- just because you want to
- _____ Spreading negative rumours
- _____ Physically hurting (beating up) a person whom you do not like
- _____ Selling your body for something you want
- _____ Copying a book rather than paying for it (violation of copyright laws)
- _____ Cheating on an exam
- _____ Dumping a girlfriend/boyfriend who was sexually taken advantage of (by someone else)
- _____ Demanding sex as payment for something that another person desperately wants/needs (e.g. information, a ride, advice etc.)

In one or two sentences, please explain your reasoning for choices number 1 through 5:
